

Eagle - fingering chart

Diagram showing fingering for notes e' through e'' on a treble clef staff. Each note is accompanied by a vertical diagram of the flute keys with black dots for standard fingerings and red dots for alternative fingerings. The notes are: e', f', f#, g', g#, a', bb', b', c'', c#'', d'', d#'', e''.

Diagram showing fingering for notes f'' through e''' on a treble clef staff. Each note is accompanied by a vertical diagram of the flute keys with black dots for standard fingerings and red dots for alternative fingerings. The notes are: f'', f#'', g'', g#'', a'', b'', b'', c''', c#'', d''', eb'', e'''.

Diagram showing fingering for notes f''' through c'''' on a treble clef staff. Each note is accompanied by a vertical diagram of the flute keys with black dots for standard fingerings and red dots for alternative fingerings. The notes are: f''', f#''', g''', g#''', a''', bb''', b''', c''''.

red fingerings are different to baroque fingerings

Octave key

E key

F and Fis key
end of the bore